TERROR AMONG MURPHY FORCES

Great Quaking When They Learn Their Secrets Are Known.

DICTOGRAPH IS USED.

Judges Have Discussed Case and are Believed to be Ready With a Decision.

Albany, N. Y., Sept. 24.—Tammany Hall leaders are greatly alarmed today as a result of the turning over to Governor Sulzer very important material for his defense in the impeachment case against him. The governor has received from detectives evidence consisting of conversations between leaders in New York City, and other conversations that took place at the executive mansion by persons close to Sulzer who are now arrayed with his enemies.

There was naturally no confirmation of the report, but the mention of a dictograph nowadays is enough to make any politician nervous.

"Beware of the dictograph," is the message sent out by Tammany leaders here to every organization man from the Bowery to the State capital.

It is based on the information which comes to the Tammany leaders that a dictograph was set up in the executive residence.

The Tammany agents here learned that the dictograph was concealed under Mr. Sulzer's own desk—the desk where the impeached official is working in his struggle to combat the Tammany attacks.

The leaders recall that there had been rumors for several days that some of their kin had been summoned to the executive residence in the last few days for secret conferences. The Tammany men have sent out word that every man in the ranks must keep away from that private office.

As a matter of fact it is almost impossible to turn around in the capitol corridors without bumping into a private detective. Both sides have hired them in unlimited numbers, and even unimportant departmental clerks have been shadowed because they enjoyed a bowing acquaintance with some politician.

The crisis in the case was reached today.

With the conclusion of the argument of A. G. Fox, of Sulzer's counsel, insisting that the accused could not be forced to answer for offenses committed prior to his taking the oath of office, the impeachment court prepared to vote on this, the vital question of the trial.

Enemies of the governor were openly confident that the contention of the defense would not be upheld. And his lawyers were only hopeful, not confident.

PREPARING FOR WAR.

Boer Tactics Will be Followed in Ireland.

Belfast, Ireland, Sept. 24.—Unionist leaders in Ulster province continue to make preparations for actual war if home rule is established.

Lieut. Gen. Sir William Thompson Adair has been appointed adjutant general of the army of 100,000 anti-home rulers, and Colonel Hackett Pain, a well known tactician, has been made chief of staff.

Col. Pain says that the Boer war tactics will be followed if war breaks out between the pro and anti-home rulers.

Liverpool, Eng., Sept. 23. — The Courier states that on the authority of "an eminent statesman" that the government will call a general election before King George signs the home bill.

Candidates for Parliament will seek elections on platforms opposing or defending home rule. If a majority of anti-home rulers are elected, King George probably will veto the bill on the ground it will cause civil war in Ireland.

Oyster Season Now Open at Rammel Cafe.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Jilted, Bennie Frank is in jail in Pittsburgh, charged with dynamiting the home of his sweetheart, Miss Annie Melchorian, because both she and the family objected to the attentions he paid her. In the explosion, Miss Melchorian's father, Ferdinand Melcorian, was seriously hurt, all the rest escaping with minor injuries. The house was demolished.

With the blowing up the Gamboa dike on October 10, the waters of the Atlantic and Pacific will meet in the Panama Canal and thus practically complete the great American link between the oceans. The Gamboa dike is the last obstruction separating the waters of the two oceans. With its removal the canal waters will for the first time enter the Culebra cut, spreading from Gautun Lake to the western gates of the canal.

Secretary of Agriculture Houston, appearing yesterday before the House Agricultural Committee, to urge favorable action on the Lever bill, for cooperative agricultural extension work, made a statement which caused deep concern and much uneasiness among the 2,500 local employes of the department over which he presides. In the course of his remarks to the committee, the Secretary predicted a "shake up" in the department of Agriculture, to eliminate duplication of work, and reduce expenses.

The police of New York are searching for a pretty 16-year-old girl who either murdered or lured to his death an unidentified man who was shot and killed at 17th street and 3rd avenue. Persons saw the girl running away from the spot after the shooting, but the authorities were unable to get a detailed description of her. All who saw her said that she could not have been more than 16. The only clue to the man's identity is a tie clasp bearing the initials "H. B."

The lower house of the Tennessee legislature was thrown into turmoil yesterday when Speaker Stanton declared friends of Governor Hooper had sent him two suit cases filled with revolvers to the office of the superintendent of the capitol and that gunmen were present in the house, the purpose being, he asserted, to intimidate him. Several inflammatory speeches followed, but the house voted down a motion providing for any investigation.

Prince Joseph Rospigliosi, who died Monday at Stresa, did not contract any marriage by religious rite with Mrs. F. H. Parkhurst, of Bangor, Me., (formerly Miss Marie Jennings Reid, of Washington) according to the brother, Prince Camillo Rospigliosi, formerly commander of the papal guard. Camilo has issued an emphatic denial of the published reports of the marriage.

State Attorney Weant gave out a statement last night concerning his investigation of the mystery surrounding the death of Miss Ella Warfield, of Sykesville, Howard county, Md., and important developments are expected within the next day or two. The State Attorney says he is satisfied Miss Warfield did not kill herself.

Robert Garros, the French aviator, yesterday flew across the Mediterranean from St. Raphael, France, to Bizerta, Tunis, the most northern seaport of Tunis. His time was 7 hours and 53 minutes. He started at 5:52 a. m., and reached Bierta at 1:45 p. m. The flight of Garros is the longest oversea journey ever made in an aeroplane. The exact distance flown was 558 miles.

BATTLE IN THE BALKANS.

Two Hundred Albanians Killed by The Servians.

Vienna, Sept. 24.—In a fierce battle yesterday between Servian troops and Albanians, on the new Albanian frontier, 20 0Albanians were killed and a large number wounded. A dispatch to a local newspaper says that the fighting occurred between Dibra and Jakova, where many of the battles between the Servians and the Turks were fought in the Balkan war.

The encounter was brought about by an attempt of several thousand Albanians to penetrate the territory captured by the Servians from the Turks. They were repulsed.

GLEAM OF HOPE FOR CONVICTS

Effect of the Decision of a Federal Judge in Kansas.

LAWYERS PLAN FIGHT.

Diggs and Caminetti Brighten up at Decision Concerning "Private Escapades."

San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 24.—New hope was raised today in the breasts of F. Drew Caminetti and Maury I Diggs, convicted as white slavers, by the decision of Federal Judge Pollock, of Kansas, in a similar case, that the Mann White Slavery act was not designed to cover "private escapades of men and women," but referred only to "commercialzed" white slavery.

"That's fine," said Diggs, today. "It looks like that our appeal will win. This is the contention we have made from the first."

Caminetti said:

"Since the Federal judges cannot agree, the success of our appeal seems certain."

That attorneys of the two men today telegraphed to Wichita for an official copy of the decision. Using it as a basis they intend to ask a month's stay of execution.

Special Prosecutor Sullivan declared that the Pollock decision can have no bearing on the Diggs and Caminetti cases.

"Judge Pollock evidently did not read the rulings of the Supreme Court of the United States regarding the Mann act," he said. "Judge Van Fleet ruled correctly throughout both the trials here."

WILL BLAME DIRECTORS.

Wreck on New York, New Haven and Hartford.

The report of the Interstate Commerce Commission on the Wallingford wreck on the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad will be made public today. It will be a severe arraignment of the old management of the railroad; in fact, the harshest report of its kind that ever has come from the commission. Upon the directors of the railroad who were serving at the time of the wreck, will fall a share of the blame as meted out by the Federal authority.

The report will charge that this wreck, in which more than a score of lives were lost, and many persons injured, was inexcusable and occurred partly because the management of the New Haven railroad deliberately ignored recommendations made by the Interstate Commerce Commission following investigations of previous wrecks.

The commission will hold that the men higher up are in the last analysis responsible for for this and other wrecks, notwithstanding carelessness and the disobeying of orders on the part of the subordinate officials and employees. In this respect the report will be in sharp contrast with the findings of the coroner's inquiry at New Haven, which put the blame on employes.

Inefficient signal equipment and lack of discipline and caution were yesterday given as the principal contributory causes for the Wallingford wreck on the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad, in which 20 persons were killed, in the report of the Public Utilities Commission, which has been investigating in Hartford since the accident occurred three weeks ago.

SPECIAL GRAND JURY.

Judge Barley Orders One Summoned For Next Friday.

Judge Barley of the Corporation Court today entered a order for a special grand jury to meet on next Friday, September 26th, at 10 o'clock to consider a number of criminal indictments. The following will constitute the jury: J. B. Fitzgerald, F. F. Marbury, William B. Smoot, E. E. Lawler, B. Baer, C. W. Howell, Moses Jaffa, and James M. Duncan.

ST. MARY'S ACADEMY.

To Open Elocution, Physical Culture and Art Classes.

Miss Gertrude Spetzler, of Baltimore, who so succesfully conducted the elocution department at St. Mary's during the past year and who has been engaged for the work during the present session will organize her classes in Elocution and Dramatic Art next Friday, September 26th; she will also have charge of the Physical Culture, a new feature to be introduced into the school this year. Miss Spetzler needs no introduction to St. Mary's patrons, as her brilliant recitals and splendid presentation of her senior class last year, gave ample evidence of her ability as a reader, interpreter and teacher.

Pupils of any school may join the elocution and physical culture classes, or they may enroll for private instruction, in either subject.

Miss Spetzler will give her first recital October 15th when St. Mary's Alumnae will hold their sixth annual reunion; it will be for the faculty and alumnae only whose guest she will be that evening.

St. Mary's also announces the opening of the art school next Friday for the teaching of drawing, painting in oil and water colors, china painting, bronze and leather work, etc. The department will be in charge of an artist of experience and marked ability and promises to become one of the special attractions of the school. The teacher will be pleased to meet at the formation of her classes any who are interested in art, to whom she will explain her aims and methods of instruction in the work of developing an artistic talent. The prospects are promising for large classes in both departments and the faculty will spare no pains to insure satisfaction to its patrons in these latest departures at St. Mary's.

SCHMIDT DECLARED SANE.

Murderer of Anna Aumuller Believed to be Feigning.

New York, Sept. 24.—"The man is sane," said Dr. Michael Erhelm, after a long conference with Hans Schmidt, the confessed murderer of Anna Aumuller yesterday. Dr. Erheim, who is one of the communicants of Father Schmidt's church, was one of three physicans who examined the priest on the grounds of personal acquaintance. His views were supported by Dr. John Herman Branth and Dr. Charles W. F. Horn.

"We talked in German," said Dr. Erheim. "I greeted Schmidt and remarked: 'You are in a fine fix.' He answered: 'I know it.' Are you sorry, I inquired.' No, I am not,' Father Schmidt replied. 'It is a matter between myself and God. Only God knows what I did. I want to die as quickly as possible."

"It seems to me there is no change in his mental condition from the time I knew him as a priest. I am convinced that he is feigning insanity."

The first examination will be held today. For this reason, the coroner's inquest, at which Schmidt was expected to identify the parts of the girl's body, has been postponed. The inquest will not be held until after the alienists report on the prisoner's mental condition.

Schmidt and his alleged associate in criminal enterprises, Dr. Ernest Muret, were indicted yesterday by the Federal grand jury on a charge of counterfeiting. Muret will be turned over to the Federal authorities by the State and the charge of violating the Sullivan law, against carrying a weapon on which he is now held, will be dropped.

Charles Rideout is in the hospital at Martinsburg, W. Va., seriously wounded, the result of a hunting accident to the farm of Deputy Sheriff M. S. Miller.

Rev. William G. McDowell, of Jarretts, Va., has accepted a call to Emanuel Episcopal Church, Staunton, Va.

Marguerite Gilbert, 17 years old, daughter of a wealthy farmer, near Redding, Conn., was shot and fatally wounded yesterday morning shortly after midnight by John Todd, her fiancee. Todd declares he pointed a rifle at her as a joke and pulled the trigger, not knowing it was loaded.

MRS. BLAKE SUES MRS. C. H. MACKAY

Charges Defendant With Alienating Husband's Affections.

PAPERS ARE SERVED.

Parties to Suit Scattered —Mrs. McKay in Seclusion—Blakes Apart—Mackay in Europe.

New York, Sept. 24.—Mrs Joseph A. Blake, wife of the noted surgeon, has served Mrs. Clarence H. Mackay with the necessary papers in a suit for $1,000,000 for alienation of her husband's affections.

Because of the reluctance of both parties to the action to face publicity, there has been a delay in filing the issue in court, but unless an agreement is reached—now looked upon as impossible because of the bitterness of the plaintiff—the papers will be offered for judicial record at the coming term.

Mrs. Mackay, whose husband suddenly left America, last June, taking with him the three children, was served with the papers in the alienation suit, in which grave charges were made just a short time before Mr .Mackay made his flight. The service was accepted in her behalf by Arthur C. Train, her personal counsel, who now represents her in association with Henry W. Taft, brother of the former President.

From that time until now all those concerned in the matter have vigorously denied that any suit had been filed. The explanation of these denials lies in the fact that it has not been filed, although the papers have been served.

MAYOR GAYNOR'S WILL.

Family Residence in Brooklyn Bequeathed to Widow.

New York, Sept. 24.—The will of Mayor William J. Gaynor, has been read to his family by Michael Furst, the lawyer to whose custody Mr. Gaynor had entrusted it shortly before he decided to take the trip across the ocean in the course of which he died.

Neither Mr. Furst nor any member of the family would reveal anything of the contents of the will, but its main provisions have been learned.

One of the considerations now most actively agitating counsel for the family is whether the mayor made any later will. If he did, neither Mr. Furst nor any immediate member of the family is aware of its existence.

Should the document read to the family prove to be the last will and testament of Wm. Jay Gaynor, its contents will be a surprise to many of the mayor's friends. According to its terms as explained, the entire estate of Mayor Gaynor, the value of which may reach $2,000,000 or more is divided into seven parts, of which Rufus and Norman Gaynor, the two sons, will receive each two-sevenths, and the Misses Ruth, Marion and Helen Gaynor, the three youngest daughters, each one-seventh.

No monetary or other provisions is made for Mrs. Gaynor, the widow, under the terms of the will, except that the town house, at 20 8th avenue, Brooklyn, is bequeathed to her. Whether Mr. Gaynor had made adequate provision for her in his lifetime could not be learned yesterday.

There is no bequest to the two remaining daughters, Mrs. Harry Vingut and Mrs. William Seward Webb, Jr., except that a remembrance of $1,000 each. This feature of the will and the apparent failure to provide for Mrs. Gaynor's support, should this prove to be the mayor's last will and testament will undoubtedly excite much comment.

DETERMINED TO PRESS PLEA

Lanston's Wife Will Demand Limited Divorce From Husband.

OPPOSES REWEDDING.

Conference by Atorneys in Suite Expected Soon to Reach Terms of Procedure.

Washington, Sept. 24.—Mrs. Aubrey Lanston, libellant in the action against the son and heir of the millionaire monotype inventor will press her plea for limited divorce, despite any agreement for an alimony settlement.

This fact developed today prior to a conferences in which Attorneys Robert H. McNeill and John E. Laskey expected to come to final terms on a proposal to pay Mrs. Lanston about $300 a month from the $600 income of her husband.

The divorce she seeks will not give Lanston an opportunity to marry "Margot the Beautiful," the Belgian tea girl named as his soulmate in the proceedings filed by Mrs. Lanston.

Lanston today is still under guard of Deputy United States Marshal Travers as the result of ne exeat proceedings instituted by Mrs. Lanston, who feared he might escape to Europe. Under agreement between the parties, he will not furnish the $2,000 bond required for present release. Instead he will remain in custody of the deputy marshal until the alimony agreement is reached. This will probably be some time this afternoon.

Although Lanston is keeping his future plans secret, it is the confident belief of his wife that he will return to Europe as soon as the alimony question is settled and he is freed from the ne exeat proceedings.

News of the death of Lanston's uncle reached here today .This is liable to keep him in America for a time, but he admits that he expects to quit Washington.

In the conference now being held, a schedule of Lanston's property is being drawn up, and the parties are seeking to reach terms for division of realty and money. The Lanston estate will not be incerased materially by the death of Lanston's uncle, but Lanston will have $300 a month or more after paying his wife the sum she is seeking in settlement.

Attorney McNeill declared today that Mrs. Lanston has no intention of dropping her plea for limited divorce. She will press that despite any arrangement Lanston may make and it is probable that he will interpose no objections. He admits that he and his wife cannot agree, and he shoulders the responsibility.

MANY ATTEND OPENING.

Bendheim's Store a Picture of Daintyness And Beauty.

The far-famed and widely heralded fashion show of Richmond, which was held yesterday and the day previous was undoubtedly worthy of the praise that was showed upon it but it is doubted if in Richmond there is a store more effectively decorated or more conveniently arranged to show the fall and winter offerings than is the store of D. Bendheim & Sons, which had its fall opening today. There is an air of refinement and elegance about the whole exhibition that is found in few department stores in the country and the effective blending of colors is one that will appeal to the most refined taste. From the outside where the doorway is flanked by waving palms, by the show windows, with their rich showing of costumes, furs and the dainty articles which are now so important to every woman's toilet, through the long aisles with their effective drapings of silks and satins to the top floor of the building, were exhibits of the very latest styles and effects.

A reception will be tendered tonight from 8 to 10 o'clock when Professor Leon's orchestra will furnish the music. The opening will be continued tomorrow.

NEGRO ATTACKS WOMAN

Mrs. Harry Travis Knocked Down By Black Fiend in Del Ray Last Night

Early last night a strange negro went to the home of Harry Travis, in Del Ray, Alexandria county, and asked Mrs. Travis for something to eat. He was told to remain at the front door and Mrs. Travis started towards the kitchen to get food for the negro. The latter, however, followed her and upon reaching the kitchen he seized Mrs. Travis and threw her to the floor. Upon Mrs. Travis screaming the would-be assailant took fright and made his escape. Mrs. Travis's husband and father-in-law were in the yard at the tme and they gave chase, but the negro managed to elude them.
In a few minutes the neighborhood was alarmed and many persons joined in the search.
Police headquarters in this city were notified and description of the negro given. He is said to be tall, slender, and about 30 years old. He wore blue overalls and a slouch hat.
The search for the fiend has been active today, and the Alexandra policemen have been endeavoring to find the fugitive.

MOVE FOR MT. VERNON

Elks Want Government to Purchase The Home of George Washington

Members of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks have come to the support of the movement to have the government acquire the home of George Washington at Mt. Vernon. The movement was revived more than a year ago by Representative Cary of Wisconsin, who introduced in the House a resolution asking for government ownership of Mt. Vernon.
During the convention of the Grand Lodge of Elks at Portland, Ore., recently, James L. Ward, of Washington, member of Washington Lodge, No. 15, introduced a resolution to support the movement. The resolution was approved without opposition.
While the Grand Lodge of the Elks has taken this action no action has been taken by Alexandria Lodge of Elks and it is believed that the great majority of the local members of the order are opposed to the purchase of Mount Vernon by the government as long as it so admirable handled by the Ladies' Association.
Representative Cary, it is reported, expects to obtain early action on the proposition. The support of the Elks, it is said, will have much influence with Congress.
Two resolutions were introduced in the Sixty-second Congress by Mr. Cary for the acquirement by the United States of Mount Vernon. The first asked for a joint committee of Congress to consider both the present management and the means of acquiring the home of the first President. In the second it was charged that the Mt. Vernon and Marshall Hall Steamobat Company and the Washington-Virginia Railroad Company enjoyed a monopoly of transportation facilities, and that they charged excessive rates for the trip to Mount Vernon. It was asked that the Committee on Rivers and Harbors investigate the charges.
A third resolution was introduced 1st April, in the present Congress. In this resolution Mr. Cary asked that the House Committee on Interstate and Foreign rates, which he claimed were excessive and also to determine what portion of Commerce conduct an inquiry into the receipts at Mount Vernon went to the Mount Vernon Ladies' Association which has control of the grounds, and it is charged, has fought legislation to have the home of Washington acquired by the people over whom he ruled.

POLICE COURT NOTES.

Ralph Decatur was arrested yesterday at the instance of his wife who claimed he had assaulted her. The complainant was not present when the case was called this morning and Decatur was released. The couple have been married but a few weeks.
Fred. Hill, a colored youth, was arraigned to answer a charge preferred by Lottie Bannion, colored. He was dismissed.
Silas Lee, colored, was charged with keeping an unmuzzled dog. His case was continued until Friday next.

Upholstery and Drapery Fabrics

A diversified collection of rich and Handsome Upholstery and Drapery Materials. Brilliant, daring, conspicuous colorings and creations of Chinese and Oriental splendor, and the almost crudely barbaric colors so lavishly exhibited in the new Futurist and Cubist designs; also the dark sombre-toned effects of early English types, and the rich and elegant French period designs which today stand unrivalled in beauty and splendor. These are mostly evident in the handsome quality Brocades.
In addition we are showing Tapestries in Gobelin, Verdue, French, and other effects; a vast display of silk Damasks and Armures, as well as a most pretentious showing of for-eign and Domestic drapery Silks in plain and figured effects, rich Velours in antique, uncut, and plain designs; Cotton Reps, Armures, and various Sunfast and other weaves in all the colorings and textures acceptable to a well defined demand.
From this assormtent you may choose materials simple and inexpensive or elaborate and costly, ranging from 75c to $30.00 a yard.
Two remarkably attractive special values are featured in imperial Velours at $2 yard,, and Tapestries at $2.50 the yard.

FISH IN THE CHESAPEAKE.

Protection Depends Upon Action of State Legislatures.

Protection of the fish in Chesapeake Bay and its tributaries must depend almost wholly on legislation in the States surrounding the waters in question, according to a decision reached yesterday morning at a conference of officials of Maryland, Virginia, and the Federal government held in the office of Secretary Redfield, of the Department of Commerce, in Washington. After devoting three hours to a discussion of the situation, representatives of the States decided to begin active work toward securing the enactment of coöperative legislation to bring about the desired results.

Those present at the conference were Secretary Redfield, Governor Goldsborough, of Maryland, Commission of Fisheries McDonald, of Virginia, and Smith and Linthicum, of Maryland; Major Jadwin,, representing Secretary Garrison, of the War Department; Commissioner Howland, of Maryland's oyster navy, and Dr. Jones, acting commissioner of the Federal bureau of Fisheries.

Dr. Jones led the discussion by reading a long report showing the grave danger facing the fishing industry of Chesapeake Bay. He presented figures to show that the entire catch for the two seasons 1912 and 1913 was not greater than one day's catch in former years.

Five recommendations for conservation of the fish supply in the Chesapeake and its tributaries were made by Dr Jones. They were: A closed season every Sunday in the year and a supplemental closed season for sturgeon for a period of years, restriction of the amount of netting in a given area, the maintenance of a clear way to spawning grounds, the prevention of avoidable waste, and the prohibition of the catching of food fish except for use as food. The latter prohibition is aimed principally at the use of food fish as fertilizer.

The War Department, it was said, will do what it can to further the movement for the protection of the fish. The chief aid rendered by the department will be in a widening of the channels and the insistence that they be kept clear of nets.

DEATH OF COL. HARWOOD.

Was Democratic Nominee For State Senate From Richmond.

Richmond, Va., Sept. 24.—Colonel John S. Harwood, Democratic nominee for the State Senate from Richmond, and for many years a prominent figure in the business and political affairs of this city, died yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the Johnston-Willis sanitarium. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon, probably at 3 o'clock, from the First Baptist Church, of which he had long been a member and officer.

Stricken on Saturday with an acute form of the intestinal trouble with which he had suffered for more than a year, Colonel Harwood had been in a critical condition, and early yesterday his physicians gave up all hope of his recovery.

A Murderer Breaks Jail.

Lexington, Va., Sept. 24.—Purcell Jones, colored, under sentence of 12 years in the penitentiary for killing John Wise, colored, last winter, escaped from the steel cage in Lexington jail Monday. Someone secured the keys while the jail was unguarded and unlocked the doors, setting the prisoner free.

Whitman T. Collins, of Thornwood, W .Va., was killed by a falling limb while cutting timber, near Ronceverte, W. Va.

Fatally Injured by Machine.

Winchester, Va., Sept. 24.—James Oates was probably fatally injured Monday while operating a silo machine near Wardensville. His hand got caught in the machinery and the right arm was crushed off. He also sustained other injuries.

Plea of Insanity to be Made in Case of Alleged Slayer of Husband .

Norfolk, Va., Sept. 24.—Mrs. Mary White, charged with the killing of her husband, Leon White, at Poyner's Hill, near Kitty Hawk, on the North Carolina Coast, will plead insanity, and it is believed by her friends that the plea will stand.

Mrs. White is the mother of thirteen children, and the case is a very sad one from many points of view. Leon White was a brother of J. B. White, for many years in the commission business in Norfolk.

It is alleged that Leon White transferred his property to his wife and later desired his wife to transfer it back to him. This, it is averred, caused misunderstandings. The wife, it is further alleged bought a pistol on the occasion of a visit to Norfolk.

The husband was found unconscious in bed with a bullet in his head. He died without being able to tell the story.

A coroner's jury returned a verdict holding the wife responsible. Later the pistol was found hidden in a woodhouse on the premises. The case will be tried in Currituck county, N. C.

A Victim of Auto.

Woodstock, Va., Sept. 24. —Miss Mary Dosh, who was injured Friday night when she was struck by an automobile driven by George Ring, of Edinburg, died at 7 o'clock this morning. Miss Dosh sustained a fractured skull. Her jawbone was broken and her teeth knocked out. One eye was pushed from the socket, and her leg broken and she sustained other injuries.

Examination as to the cause of the accident developed the fact that it was unavoidable, and Mr. Ring was exonerated of any blame, both by the family and the magistrate.

HELPLESS AS BABY

Down in Mind Unable to Work, and What Helped Her.

Summit Point, W. Va.—Mrs. Anna Belle Emey, of this place, says: "I suffered for 15 years with an awful pain in my right side, caused from womanly trouble, and doctored lots for it, but without success. I suffered so very much, that I became down in mind, and as helpless as a baby. I was in the worst kind of shape. Was unable to do any work.

I began taking Cardui, the woman's tonic, and got relief from the very first dose. By the time I had taken 12 bottles, my health was completely restored. I am now 48 years years old, but feel as good as I did when only 16.

Cardui certainly saved me from losing my mind, and I feel it my duty to speak in its favor. I wish I had some power over poor, suffering women, and could make them know the good it would do them."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, it will certainly be worth your while to give Cardui a trial. It has been helping weak women for more than 50 years, and will help you, too.

Try Cardui. Your druggist sells it.

A GREAT VICTORY FOR THE BIRDS.

Miss Katherine H. Stuart, of this city, national field agent for the Virginia Audubon Society, is greatly gratified at the receipt of advices from W. T. Hornaby, of the New York Zoological Park that the United States Senate has elected to preserve unbroken its record in the conservation of wild life. After a prolonged and very strenuous struggle with the feather trade, the friends of the birds, both in and out of Congress, have won a complete victory. On September 2, the Senate democratic caucus voted to withdraw the amendment it previously adopted to the bird-protecting clause of the tariff bill, and restore that measure as it was written into the tariff bill by the House Committees on Ways and Means. Inasmuch as there is no probability that this action ever will be reversed, the war with "the feather trade" may be accounted as terminated, in a sweeping victory for the birds of the world.

The action was taken by the caucus affords reasons for profound congratulation. Heretofore no party lines ever have been drawn in Congress against birds, or other forms of wild life; and the prospect that the wreck of the bird-protecting clause might or might not be patched up in the conference commitee, at the Senate's expense, gave the bird protectors a feeling of genuine sorrow. It semed deplorable that the Senate should, for even one month, assume a position of friendliness to bird slaughter, and draw party lines against the birds.

But the ship of state has righted itself, and once more rests on an even keel. The new tariff bill will prohibit the importation of wild birds' plumage for commercial purposes, no matter from what country they come, and will totally abolish in the United States and all its territorial possessions the odious and cruel traffic in the skins and feathers of slaughtered wild birds. The news of the action of the Senate will give joy to millions of people, all over the world, who now are thinking very hard on the subject of bird-destruction.

ALEXANDRIA NOT ALONE IN SCHOOL CONGESTION.

Every now and then statements are made relative to the overcrowding of the Alexandria public schools and one not familiar with the situation all over the United States would imagine that Alexandria is conspicuous because the city is unable to provide school facilities which would meet the ideal requirements of the critical. As a matter of fact Alexandria is far better off than many of its sister cities in as much as we have provided in some sort of a way for every child that wants to go to school, and in only the primary grades is there any considerable congestion. From Atlanta, Montgomery, Columbia, Raleigh, Jacksonville, and in fact every city that is growing comes the cry that children cannot be accommodated in the schools. With the opening of the school year in Philadelphia there were 20,000 children ready and anxious to go to school but there are no accommodations in the inadequate buildings provided.

VIRGINIAN SUSPECTED.

Native of Richmond Believed to Have Murdered Merchant.

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 24.—Convinced that the young man who Monday brutally murdered and robbed Joseph Schlansky, a clothing merchant, in a hotel here is the same person who has committed similar robberies in several Eastern and middle Western cities, the local police department last night asked officers in every large city east of the Mississippi River to watch for the slayer. They believe the murderer is Joseph Ellis, about 21 years old, of Richmond, Va., Schlansky's body was not found until early today.

A strong cord had been tied around the merchant's throat, and he had been shot through the head. The merchant's watch and about $2 also were missing. The slayer left two notes, in which he said he had started to rob the merchant and then killed him.

Investigation of the murder of Schlansky showed that it had been coolly planned and the escape so cunningly carried out as to throw off suspicion temporarily.

After murdering the merchant the man discarded a collar spotted with blood, walked to a nearby store, where he purchased another, and then returning to the lobby of the hotel wherein his victim lay dead remained for an hour or more.

Late in the afternoon the slayer returned to his room, and then going to the union depot, secured his suitcase from the check room and is believed to have caught an eastbound train.

Suicide of a Woman.

Philadelphia, Sept. 24.—Hardly more than a hundred feet from the Old Soldier road, along which searching parties had made their way every day during the last week, the body of Anna Eldridge, 31 years old, of No. 900 Levick street, was found yesterday afternoon in a cornfield of the Fisher farm, Fox Chase. A glass tumbler that had contained poison was lying by her side and the condition of the body indicated that death had occurred at least a week ago, probably on the very morning of the girl's strange disappearance from the Lawndale home of her brother-in-law, William E. Chrissey, 10 minutes' walk from the Fisher farm. Miss Eldridge disappeared shortly after 7 o'clock on the morning of September 16. She had been ill as a result, it is said, of an attempt to commit suicide by gas in the home of relatives in Frankford four months before.

The Opportunity
The TEMPLE School
—OF—
Shorthand & Typewriting

lays particular stress upon the fact that the success of a pupil depends upon the co-operation of three parties—the pupil, the teacher and the parent. Mrs. Caroline B. Stephens, the principal of the Temple School, emphasizes the fact that there is nothing more easily slighted than teaching. The pupil is not in a position to realize that he is not being properly taught. His parents very often discover it when months and in some cases, an entire year has been wasted. The parent should make it his duty to carefully select a school. Inquiries should be made to find the standing of the school in the business world, for every business school earns its reputation through the work of its individual pupils. Once a pupil is entered in a school, it is the duty of the parents to see that the pupil attends the school regularly, and that the work assigned to be done at home is prepared.

The Temple School gives its pupils the opportunity to obtain a thorough business training.

HAS ELUDED HER MOTHER.

Philadelphia Officials Fear Broadway, Virginia Girl Has Been Enticed Away.

Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 24.—It is feared "white slavers" may have boarded a train from Philadelphia and enticed away Louise Rhodes, the pretty 17-year-old Broadway, Va., girl who eloped to this city six weeks ago with her fiance, Francis Cannon, 22 years old, son of a wealthy liquor dealer, of Washington, D. C.

They were arrested before they could get married because of the youth of the girl.

It is possible, however, that Louise may have simply decided not to go home.

The girl was placed on a train at Broad Street Station bound for her home at Broadway, Va., last Saturday by Miss Marion Gillette, head of the Court Aid Society. When the train reached Broadway on the same day, the mother of the girl inquired anxiously for her, but the passengers said they had only a slight recollection of a girl answering the description of Louise getting off the train with a man at an intermediate station.

Mrs. Rhodes waited several days, but received no word from Louise. She then wrote to Miss Gillette, and the social worker is trying to locate the girl. She fears for Louise's safety.

Richmond Man Under Arrest in Rochester, Charged With Killing.

Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 24.—Oscar Knuckles, a Richmond man, who is under arrest in Rochester, charged with shooting to death Albert Brewer, of Norfolk, Va., last Friday night in Rochester, in a boarding house, plead not guilty this afternon to a charge of murder in the first degree, and his case was adjourned to October 8th.

Walter Krupp is also alleged to have been shot by Knuckles, is improving in the Rochester Homeopathic Hospital. An inquest into Brewer's death was set for Saturday.

Frank Myers, composing the firm of Myers Bros, who opened their automobile sales rooms and garage in this city in the fall of 1909, since which time the use of automobiles has greatly incrased in this territory.

For five years Myers Bros., have been engaged in the automobile business, combined with their other interests, occuping the property at 111 to 123 Pitt street. By a recent purchase they acquired property at 117 to 123 Pitt, which now gives them a total frontage of 134 feet on Pitt street, with a depth of 120 feet, and in the very near future they will erect a new and handsome modern structure on this property in place of present quarters which will enable them to greatly enlarge their automobile business.

On the second floor of their present quarters is located the woodworking and paint shop, in the rear is the blacksmithing and machine shop, with the sales office in front and storage rooms in the building at 111 north Pitt, just south of the office.

During the five years they have been selling Overland cars to Alexandrians, more than fifty cars have been disposed of. The great popularity of the Overland and their success in selling the car is a good indication of the bright future for the automobile business in this city and nearby counties.

To keep abreast of the times Myers Bros., contemplate taking the agency for two other makes of cars and will also handle the well-known Oldsmobile.

Their business in accessories and storage of cars has more than doubled during the past five years, six employes now being kept busy in their repair shops and garage.

Dr. Thomas B. Cochran who purchased an Overland car from the firm four years ago, recently returned from a two week's trip without one breakdown or engine trouble to his car.

The following are among the recent purchasers of Overland cars: Thomas Grey, of Arlington, R. T. Green, of Braddock Heights, F. Simpson, Wm. Crow, Dr. Hornbaker, and Mutual Ice Company. These men have all owned other cars before purchasing the Overland and traded their old cars on the purchases of new cars.

Myers Bros., are now well equipped and well organized to give splendid service to autoists and to handle any number of cars daily in their garage. The new 1914 Overland models which are now ready for immediate delivery from the factory, will be demonstrated to any one interested.

Honest Advice to Consumptives

Somehow there exists a vast amount of scepticism as to the possibility of curing Consumption. We state some but facts, and are sincere in what we assert.

If we were afflicted with Tuberculosis, we should do precisely what we ask others to do—take Eckman's Alterative promptly and faithfully. The reason we should do this and warrant we have for asking all Consumptives to take it, is that we have the reports of many recoveries, one of which follows:—

1619 Susquehanna Ave., Phila., Pa.

"Gentlemen: For two years I was afflicted with hemorrhages of the lungs, the number totaled nearly one hundred. Our family physician advised another climate, as to remain would probably be fatal. However, I remained, and in February of 1902, I was taken with a severe attack of pneumonia. When I recovered sufficiently to walk about the house I was left with a frightful hacking cough, which no medicine I had taken could alleviate. It was at this time, March, 1902, that I learned of and started taking Eckman's Alterative. In a short time my cough was gone and I was pronounced well. Since that time I have had two slight attacks of pneumonia and I have resorted to no other medicine to effect a cure.

"I am at present in excellent health and feel that as long as I can obtain Eckman's Alterative, I have no fear of Consumption. I cannot speak too highly for the good it has done."

(Signed) HOWARD L. KLOTZ

Eckman's Alterative is effective in Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever; Throat and Lung Troubles, and in upbuilding the system. Does not contain poisons, opiates or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries, and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for more evidence. For sale by all leading druggists

In the District Court of the United States for The Eastern District of Virginia.

At the second September Rules, 1912, held in the Clerk's Office of the said Court, at Alexandria, Virginia.

United States of America to the use of Hugh Reilly Co., a corporation, Plaintiff.

vs. At Law

Baltimore Bridge Co., a corporation, and American Fidelity Co., a Corporation Defendants.

On motion of the plaintiff, by its attorneys, supported by affidavit filed in this suit, it is ordered, that all creditors, if any, of the Baltimore Bridge Co., a corporation, for labor and materials furnished and supplied in connection with the construction and completion of three steel towers for the wireless Telegraph Station at the United States Reservation, Arlington, Virginia, under a certain formal contract, under seal, between said Baltimore Bridge Company and the United States of America, dated June 13, 1911, are hereby notified, in pursuance of the statute in such case made and provided, that suit has been instituted herein by the United States of America to the use of Hugh Reilly Co., a corporation, claiming to have furnished and supplied materials used in the prosecution of the work under said contract, and wherein recovery is sought under the certain writing obligatory, entered into by and between said Baltimore Bridge Company, as principal, and the American Fidelity Co., as surety, to secure the performance of said contract, as well, also to secure prompt payment of claims to all persons supplying labor and materials in the prosecution of said work in the penal sum of Thirty One Thousand, Six Hundred and Sixty-Three Dollars($31,663).

It is further ordered that any and all creditors of the Baltimore Bridge Company, if any there be, in the matter of the construction and completion of the three certain steel towers aforesaid, intervene in this action, file claim therein, and be made party thereto, on or before the Second Rules in October, 1913, to be held in the Clerk's Office of the said Court on the Third Monday in October, 1913; provided, a copy of this order be published once a week for three successive weeks in the Alexandria Gazette, a newspaper published in the city of Alexandria, Virginia, before said day.

WITNESS the Honorable Edmund Waddell, Jr., Judge of the District Court of the United States, this 23d day of September, 1913, and in the 137th year of the independence of the United States of America.

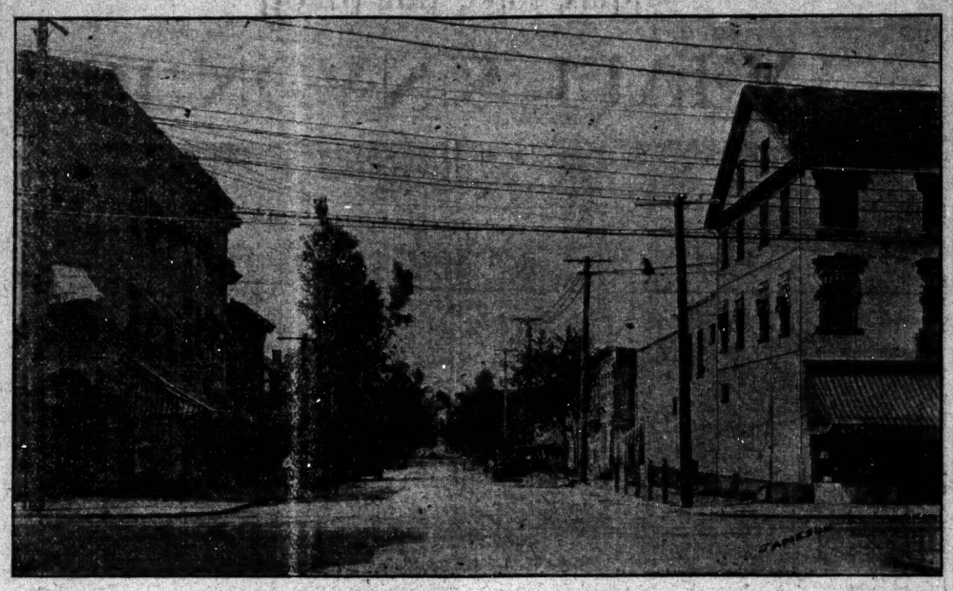
Improvements on Pitt St. Between Cameron and King

IN THE GROWING BUSINESS BLOCK OF ALEXANDRIA

Merchants on Cameron and Pitt Streets say increase of traffic 100 per cent since improved paving has been laid.



Pitt Street, between King and Cameron, is destined to become one of Alexandria's important thoroughfares, now that new paving has been laid and the street improved by new business buildings and sidewalks. These improvements will attract a larger volume of traffic to Pitt from both Cameron and King Street than this street has ever known before. Considerable traffic is expected to be diverted from Royal street, as many drivers of vehicles will find it to their advantage to take the less crowded and smooth paved Pitt street, rather than pass down Royal, when going from the wharf or the market westward, as Royal street is very often considerably crowded during the week when many conveyances are grouped along the curb line about the City Hall and Market.

This Fall and next Spring a number of improvements to the buildings on Pitt street will be undertaken when the new cement side walks to be constructed will greatly improve this street.

SWAN BROS. STORE.

On the most prominent corner of Pitt and King street is the big store of Swan Bros., which has recently been thoroughly remodeled throughout. New hardwood maple flooring has been laid, a new system of electric lighting installed which makes the store as bright as day during the evenings and an entire new equipment of store fixtures, made special to order has been installed on the main floor of the store.

The additional improvements on the second floor now under way have not been fully completed, the second floor will be devoted to ladies fine suits which department will be fully equipped with the most modern fixtures made to order. Above the Men's Shop Swan Bros., will open a new department for the sale of Rugs, Mattings, Linoleums, Oil Cloths, Trunks, Travelling Bags, etc.

Several new features have been adopted, which makes Swan Bros. store conspicuous in service to shoppers. one feature of particular interest to the ladies is a room specially fitted up in which to display corsets and muslin underwear in a manner to insure absolute privacy for the ladies inspecting these goods.

The Men's Shop which occupies the ground floor of the new addition to Swan's store has been fitted up at considerable expense for the express purpose of catering to men and boys trade. Here is displayed a complete and very large line of up-to-date men's and boy's furnishings.

DUNCAN STABLES.

The spiendid two-story brick structure that has been erected by James M. Duncan, proprietor of Duncan Stables, is certainly credit to the City of Alexandria. The building was carefully planned in consideration of the most exacting requirements demanded of a modern stable where animals of great value must be taken care of constantly and no expense was spared to have every modern facility that could be thought of as necessary to properly stable horses and for an up-to-date stabling and boarding service of the best kind. All horses in Duncan stables are on the street floor which is paved with cement with sufficient of room in the stalls for the animals. The second floor gives plenty of storage room for vehicles and for storage of feed in large quantities.

STORE OF THOMAS LANNON.

The store of Thomas Lannon, at the corner of Pitt and Cameron streets, which was established in 1862 carries one of the most varied and most complete stocks of fine and staple groceries and table delicacies in the city of Alexandria and offers to customers, in quality of goods, service, prices, variety and integrity, a business policy that is more often associated with stores of much larger size in only the large cities.

Thomas Lannon established the definite policy of full weight and full measure guaranteed, in the year the store was established 1862 which policy still remains. With this feature goes quality in all goods and Thomas Lannon stands back of the quality guarantee.

Service with the Lannon employes stands for courtesy to customers and the delivery and shipment service is unsurpassed in every way. Improvement of the service however is constantly being made to keep it up to its standard.

Prices average lower, for as every one knows, inferior products are always dear. The finest goods stand for economy, why; because they are absolutely guaranteed and are sold at market prices, full weight and measure.

Variety is unsurpassed, embodying all the imported and domestic food products, wines, cigars, cigarettes, and table delicacies of the finest, preserved, canned, bottled and all staple goods the market affords.

Integrity full weight and full measure always guaranteed the same now as in 1862. Our customers know that what we offer may be depended upon as being satisfactory, or we make it so. Visitors to the store always welcome.

MYERS BROS.

Few persons beyond those directly concerned realize to what extent the use of automobiles has grown among residents of Alexandria and nearby counties.

Much of the interest manifested in the automobile by people in this section is the result of five years hard missionary work of Robert L., and J.
